Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., March 30, 1886.

Dear Sir:

The Director of the Mint desires me to inquire whether it is your wish that, as suggested by him, he shall ask for a special appropriation for your relief, or whether you prefer to look for relief from others in the matter of the three stolen bars?

Very respectfully,

H. E. Spackman

J. C. Booth, Esq.,

Philadelphia.
